

The news every RADIO
ENTHUSIAST is awaiting

The New 1930

RADIO

LISTENERS' GUIDE

is on Sale Next Week. PRICE 2/6

The clear index will let you pick the page and paragraph, the very item of instruction that has delayed enjoyment of your Radio so long.

UNEXPECTED FEATURES OF GREAT VALUE TO EXPERIMENTERS AND CONSTRUCTORS.

1. A gramophone speed indicator.
2. Tables giving voltage drops through various resistances.
3. A complete wire table giving everything the experimenter wants to know about wire.
4. A table giving the number of turns for coils of any size with any condenser.
5. Details of step-up and step-down transformers for all voltages.
6. Valve tables giving all details about valves, including maximum undistorted output.
7. Full working details of a power amplifier, battery charger, A.C. set, A.C. short-wave adaptor, a D.C. set, a D.C. short-wave set, and full "How to Make" descriptions of the various little knick-knacks that every constructor needs.

What you expect to know is in the New 1930 Edition, but condensed into clear understandable information—contains more of practical benefit—your pocket and your interest is studied. Too closely if you like, for amongst the many useful tools described there is An Electric Soldering Iron that can be made for a few pence. There are other tools equally valuable.

Surely everyone can save money by knowing all about values. The new 1930 Guide tells you.

For the general reader there is a complete list of all stations that can be heard in New Zealand. There is in simple language a story of how broadcasting is accomplished, with special attention to broadcasting in New Zealand. This section is well illustrated with photographs.

The whole publication is profusely illustrated with clear diagrams, photo diagrams and photos.

Handiest work of general information in Radio ever produced. Diagrams, drawings and special photographs to clearly illustrate every section.
