FUTURE PROGRAMMES

SUNDAY

From 1YA

ON Sunday afternoon there will be a relay of portion of an organ recital to be given in the Auckland Town Hall by Mr. Maughan Barnett, city organist. The evening service to be held in St. Andrew's Church will be relayed by 1YA. The preacher will be the Rev. Ivo Bertram, and the organist and choirmaster, Dr. Neil McDougal. This broadcast will be followed by a relay of the Municipal Band concert, to be given under the direction of Captain George Buckley, in the Town Hall. Included in the programme will be a cornet solo by Mr. Fred Bowes, "Lo, Here the Gentle Lark" will be played as a flute and clarinet duet by Messrs. Hal. McLennan and M. J. McGregor.

Wellington Notes

THE evening service in the Taranaki Street Methodist Church will be relayed. The preacher will be the Rev. T. R. Richards, and the organist and choirmaster Mr. H. Temple White. At 8.15 p.m. a recital by the Port Nicholson Silver Band, under the conductorship of Mr. J. J. Drew, will be relayed from the Grand Opera House.

3YA Topics

THE service in Moorhouse Avenue Church of Christ will be broadcast by 3YA. Mr. E. P. Ademan, B.A., will be the preacher, Miss B. Readhead organist, and Mr. H. E. Ames choir conductor. In the after-church concert, items will be contributed by a fine trio consisting of Misses Gladys Vincent (violin), Doreen Daly (piano), and Mr. Francis Bate (cello). The numbers will comprise "Fantaisies," "Londonderry Air," and "Fairy Frolic."

4YA Broadcast

THE evening service in St. John's Anglican Church, Roslyn, will be broadcast by 4YA. The Ven. Archdeacon

VAL JONES,

A 2YA baritone, who will be heard next week in some very popular numbers, including that well-known solo, "The Lute Player."

con Fitchett will be the preacher, with Mr. W. H. Allen as choirmaster. Afterward, 3YA's concert will be relayed.

Wellington Broadcast

MR. H. C. South will deliver his fortnightly talk on "Books—Grave and Gay."

The dramatic radio play, "Joan of Arc" is to be produced for 2YA by Mr. J. F. Montague and his company. There will be a dance music session from 10 till 11 p.m.

3YA Features

A REVIEW of books of the month will be broadcast from 3YA by Mr. E. E. Wiltshire, president of Linwood Library.

Conductor R. J. Estall, of the Woolston Band, has arranged a fine programme. The items will include two marches, "Punchinello" and "North Star," a selection, "Memories of Schubert," Toselli's "Serenata," and the overture "Pique Dame." An outstanding item should be a trombone solo, "If With All Your Hearts," played by Bandsman E. Williams. Miss Myra Pollard, who has just graduated A.T.O.L., will sing numbers new to most listeners.

Dunedin Notes

THE Four Ace Concert part will be responsible for the entertainment, and will feature concerted numbers. Their numbers will include an "Opening Chorus," Plantation medley, "The Tide Rises—The Tide Falls," and the "Closing Ode." Solos and duets, all of a popular type, will also be sung by the Aces, and a "Joker" will also play his part. The pianist of the party will be Mr. Norman Bachop, who will play "Finlandia." The Studio Trio will also contribute to the programme.

TUESDAY

At 1YA

RECENTLY, 1YA broadcast a one-act play, entitled "The Price," written by Dr. George de Olive Lowe, of Auckland. This was a great success in every way, and listeners will look forward with pleasurable anticipation to another three-act play from the same author, entitled "Destiny's Door."

Once again the play will be produced by Mrs. Zoe Bartley Baxter, who will lead an excellent cast. Dance music will follow the presentation of this play and will continue until 11 p.m.
