"RADIO'S CLEARER VOICE"

Still Another "Colonial" Triumph THE NEW COLONIAL COMPACT

Fresh from the amazing success of the Model 33 A.C., "Colonial" once more steps up to a position of leadership with the "Colonial Compact," an entirely new idea in small set design.

Here is the difference—The "Colonial Compact" is a standard set built into a small space.

Full size 9-inch Dynamic Speaker.
245 Valves in Pushpull.
50 per cent. Oversize Transformer.

Performance that will equal any standard set on the market—excepting only the "Colonial" 33 A.C.

Beautiful Walnut Cabinet with Tarso inlay, every part exactly identical in quality with those in its larger brother, the Model 33 A.C.—Tone, power, distance, selectivity, such as you have previously heard only in the best of the standard sized sets.

Backed by the wonderful reputation of the "Colonial" name, is it any wonder that it is being hailed as

The Greatest Radio in All History--- and it's Priced at only £29-10-0

See it to-day at your local agent's. Its superb beauty, its amazing perfection of tone, its sensational performance, will win your instant admiration.

in this respect being of great value to the Australian Forces, to which he was attached as interpreter during the war.

Other vocalists in the concert party for Wednesday evening will be Miss Clare Dillon (soprano), Miss Vanda Duncan (mezzo-soprano), and Mr. Thomas Kennedy (baritone).

Miss Anna Briasco, violinist, who will play the well-known "Meditation" from "Thais" and Saint Saens' "Le Cygne," is a most artistic performer. Another young musician who will no doubt delight listeners will be Miss Luella Hamer, pianist. Although very young, she plays with unusual ability.

The evening's programme will include two trios, Voight's "Serenade" and Thome's "Simple Aveu," played by Miss Briasco, Signora Reggiardo (pianist) and Mr. Jack Stewart (flautist). Two flute and piano duets will also be played. The accompanist for the evening will be Signora Reggiardo.

Prime Minister's Speech Marred

Interference from German Broadcaster

When England's Prime Minister, the Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, was broadcasting a talk on India recently, listeners in the south-east of England were annoyed to hear the powerful German station at Muehlbacher interrupting in broad German.

On one occasion an emphatic remark by the Premier on the subject of Indian self-government was followed by the unintentional observation, "Ich glaube es nicht" ("I don't believe it").

Despite the efforts of the British Broadcasting Corporation, the interference continues, and doubts are now expressed whether the trouble will be overcome before the Madrid International Conference on Wireless and Broadcasting is held next year. Representations have frequently been made to the German authorities, and now the matter has been referred to the International Broadcasting Union, which sits permanently in Geneva.

Notes and News

AMONG the architectural refinements included in the new "Broadcasting House," Portland Place, London, are special sound-proof studio walls packed with seaweed.

IN recent programmes of the British Broadcasting Corporation, in the literary section, appear some eminent and interesting names, including Mrs. Oliver Strachey, Miss Victoria Sackville-West, Mr. Duff Cooper, Dean Inge and Dr. L. P. Jacka; while Mr. Harold Nicolson and the delightful Mr. Agate help to swell the brilliant coterie brought together by the acumen of the B.B.C.
