FUTURE PROGRAMMES

SUNDAY

1YA Notes

DURING the afternoon there will be a relay of a portion of an organ recital to be given in the Auckland Town Hall by the City Organist, Mr. Maughan Barnett. In the evening, the service will be relayed from the Pitt Street Methodist Church, the Rev. W. Walker being the preacher. In the after-church concert, Mr. Denis Sheard, tenor, late of Australia, will broadcast. The Aubade Trio, consisting of piano, violin and contralto, will be making their initial appearance.

Mr. Edward V. Johnson, a young flautist, will be heard in several numbers.

From 2YA

THE service to be held in the Vivian Street Church of Christ will be relayed, the preacher being Pastor W. G. Carpenter and the organist Miss Hazel Hunter. At 8.15 p.m., approximately, a recital by the Wellington Municipal Tramways Band, under the conductorship of Mr. E. Franklin, will be relayed from St. James's Theatre.

Christchurch Topics

THE service in the Oxford Terrace Baptist Church (the Rev. L. A. North) will be broadcast, Mr. W. Melville Lawry officiating at the organ and Mr. K. G. Archer will be choir-master. 4YA's studio concert will then be relayed.

Items from 4YA

THE Rev. A. Mead will be the preacher at Moray Place Congregational Church, Dunedin, when the service will be broadcast. The choir-master will be Mr. Walmsley. A studio concert, to be given by the Kalkorai Band, under Mr. T. J. Kirk-Burnnand, will follow.

MONDAY

Broadcast by 2YA

AN interesting item on 2YA's programme will be the performance of Percy Grainger's "Colonial Song," a piano solo with tenor and soprano voices singing an obligato. In this piece the composer endeavours to express feelings aroused by thoughts of the scenery and people of his native land (Australia), without making use of traditional tunes of any kind.

The piano part will be played by Mr. Gordon Short, and the obligato sung by Miss Jeannette Briggs and Mr. Harry Brusey. The Ariel Singers will present Liza Lehmann's popular song cycle "The Daisy Chain," with trio accompaniment. The cycle consists of solos and quartets, and by reason of its tunefulness and simplicity has a universal appeal.

The Orchestra, under the conductorship of Signor A. P. Truda, will contribute some fine numbers, including Mattel's beautiful "Non e Ver" ("Tis Not True") for trumpet solo and orchestra.

Christchurch Features

THE first of a series of talks on "Treatment and Care of the Feet" will be broadcast from 3YA by Mr. R. B. Belford, an authority on the subject. The Christchurch Municipal Band will provide the concert.

Notes from Dunedin

"THE MAJORS" QUARTET will be the vocalists this evening. Their numbers will include extracts from a 2YA artist who will next be heard in a novelty duo number on April 24.

LAD HAYWOOD,

"No, No, Nanette," "Annie Laurie" and "The Cuckoo Sings in the Poplar Tree." Two popular songs, "The Dover Patrol" and "Tom Bowling" will be sung by Mr. E. W. Robbins, tenor, and Mr. L. M. Cachemaille will sing, as a bass solo, "The Mistress of the Master." An orchestral programme will be provided by a sextette under Mr. Pettitt.

TUESDAY

Auckland Items

THE main feature of 1YA's programme is the second appearance of Denis Sheard, the well-known Australian tenor, who will be heard in "M'appari O Quella" (from "Rigoletto"). Gwladys Edwardes, another outstanding visiting Australian artist possessing a particularly fine soprano voice, well known to 2YA listeners, will make the first appearance of three at this station. Mr. Reg. Morgan and his orchestra will provide the instrumental portion of the programme and dance music until 11 p.m.

The 2YA Programme

A PROGRAMME of the popular type will be presented this evening. The Salon Orchestra, under the conductorship of Mr. M. T. Dixon, will play the overture "A Day in Naples" (by Byng), "Berceuse" and "Canzonetta" (two compositions by Friml), the suite "Cyrano de Bergerac" (by Rosse) and will also feature a very clever composition by Saint Saens, entitled "The Carnival of Animals," for two pianos and orchestra. The vocalists for the evening will include "The Melodie Four" in a varied and interesting programme. The White Coons, novelty instrumentalists, will again delight listeners with dulcimer solos and trios. Suitable electrical recordings will be introduced to complete the programme.

Features from 4YA

UNDER the auspices of the W.E.A. Mr. Lloyd Ross, M.A., LL.B., will give a talk, the first of "The Metropolis Series," on "Old and New in Vienna." A band concert to be provided by the Dunedin Tramways Band under the conductorship of Mr. C. T. Morgan, supported by 4YA artists, will be presented at 8 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY

Notes from Auckland

THE instrumental portion of the programme will be provided by the Birkenhead Municipal Band under the conductorship of Lieutenant J. T. Lighton. They will play, among other numbers, the selection "The Pirates of Penzance," the overture "The Crimson Star," and "Hamlet" selection. The Orpheus Quartet, Chrissie Foster, Cathleen Mulqueen, Sid. Poffley and E. M. Newling, will give several excerpts from the musical comedy "The Quaker Girl."

Wellington Topics

THE next instalment of the international programmes—recordings selected from overseas broadcast entertainments—will be featured, Dr. Guy H. Scholefield, O.B.E., will talk on an international topic.

From 3YA and 4YA

A TALK on "Poppy Day" will be broadcast from 3YA at 7.45 p.m., and in the evening 4YA's Exhibition programme will be broadcast.
