

THURSDAY

1YA Items

UNDER the auspices of the New Zealand Manufacturers' Association, a talk on "Pickles, Sauces, etc." will be given by Mr. J. P. Stevenson.

As to-day is the anniversary of the birth of William Shakespeare, a special commemorative programme has been arranged. Mr. J. F. Montague and his dramatic players will present several scenes and vocal numbers from Shakespeare's works, while the orchestral octet will provide appropriate instrumental music, including the suite "As You Like It," "Shakespearean Sketches," and "The Beggar's Opera."

2YA Notes

AT 7.40 Mr. W. E. Priestly will broadcast a talk on "Modern Ballroom Dancing."

A Shakespearean programme will be broadcast, the major portion of which will be given by Mr. Clement May.

These will include scenes from "Romeo and Juliet," "Julius Caesar" and "Macbeth." Supplementary to these numbers, Misses Mona and Mavis Castle will be heard in a programme of songs and duets suitable to the day. The incidental music will be supplied by the McLean brothers and Mr. Norman Izett (violin, cello and piano) in a programme of music suitable for the occasion, including "Henry VIII Dances" (by German) and a suite from "The Merchant of Venice" (by Rosse).

Christchurch and Dunedin Notes

UNDER the auspices of the Forestry League, Mr. C. E. Foweraker will speak from 3YA at 7.30 on "Forestry." 3YA will broadcast 4YA's exhibition programme.

FRIDAY

Selections from Auckland

AT 7.40 p.m. there will be a talk by Mr. E. R. Davis on the "Pig Industry." The vocalists for this even-

MR. REG. BLOW, L.R.A.M., an excellent baritone appearing from 2YA on April 28.

MRS. HOWARD AND HER MELODY MAKERS.

This quartet has performed acceptably during the 2YA Children's Session and will be heard on the air again on May 16 and July 4. On this latter occasion they will be heard in an all-American programme in keeping with the glorious fourth.

ing's programme will be Mrs. B. Jelard (contralto) and Mr. George Martinengo, who is making his first appearance at this station. Mr. Martinengo is a vocalist and cellist of repute who many years ago toured New Zealand. He will be heard in baritone solos and also a cello solo. Other instrumental items will be given by Mr. Robert McKnight (English concertina artist) and Barry Ingali's Hawaiians. The Twa Maes, who are a new combination, will broadcast twenty minutes of Scottish humour and songs, while Mr. Eric Bell will play a group of light popular classical numbers. Lovers of this type of music will welcome the appearance of this young artist.

2YA Features

FEATURED on this evening's programme will be Mr. Rex Harrison, who will be heard in two numbers from Amy Woodforde-Finden's "Indian Love Lyrics"—"The Temple Bells" and "Less Than the Dust" to orchestral accompaniment, "Invictus" and "Nelson's Gone a'Sailing." Mr. Lad Haywood and Mr. Billy Hart will again be heard in a budget of up-to-date popular numbers. The Orchestra, under Signor A. P. Truda, will play many fine numbers, including "La Paloma" and "Spring Song." The programme for the evening will be subject to interruption to permit of a relay of a sound film feature from the Majestic Theatre.

3YA and 4YA Items

THE 4YA Exhibition programme will be relayed to and broadcast by 3YA.

SATURDAY

Auckland Notes

TO-DAY, Anzac Day, 1YA will relay at 11 a.m. the Anzac Day service, to be held in the Auckland Town Hall, and at 2.30 p.m. will broadcast a description of the ceremony at the Cenotaph.

A fitting programme has been arranged for the evening, and some very fine artists have been engaged. Miss Edna Peace (contralto) will sing, among other numbers, "Crossing the Bar" and "The Better Land," and Miss Mollie Atkinson has included in her numbers "O Fair and Sweet and Holy." The tenor vocalist for the evening will be Mr. Arthur H. Ripley, and he has chosen some very fine and appropriate items—"Be Thou Faithful," "Oft in the Stilly Night," and "Sound an Alarm." Miss Joyce Hould, a clever young elocutionist, will give four numbers by Massfield, an extract from "Gallipoli," "Laugh and be Merry," "A Consecration" and "August, 1914." Appropriate music will be provided by the Orchestral Octet, under the direction of Mr. Harold Baxter.

Wellington Items

THREE relays will be performed, the first at 11 a.m., when a children's service is to take place at the Cenotaph. At 2.30, a next-of-kin memorial service, arranged by the Wellington Returned Soldiers' Association, will be relayed from the Town Hall. At 8 o'clock an Anzac Day sacred concert, under the direction of Mr. H. Temple White, arranged by the R.S.A., will be broadcast.

From 3YA

THE Christchurch Citizens' Memorial Service, to be held at 2.30, will be broadcast this afternoon. The speaker will be Mr. W. Perry, LL.B., Dominion vice-president of the Returned Soldiers' Association. A special Anzac service will take place in Christchurch Anglican Cathedral at 7 o'clock, Mr. Frank Milner, C.M.G., being the speaker. At 8.15 p.m. a studio concert will be broadcast.

4YA Features

A SERVICE to be held in First Church, Dunedin, at 10.30 a.m., under the auspices of the Council of Christian Congregations, will be broadcast. The service will be conducted by the Rev. A. Mead and the preacher will be the Rev. D. C. Herron, M.A., M.C. At 3 o'clock a service, to be held in the Town Hall under the auspices of the Returned Soldiers' Association, will be broadcast. In the evening, 3YA's studio concert will be relayed.

3YA Jottings

MISS OLIVE COOPER, a pianiste heard from 3YA, will be the pianiste at the forthcoming concert to be given in the Radiant Hall by the Christchurch Orchestral Society.

The subject for the next of the series of Maori lecturesses by Mr. Te Ari Pitama will be "Our People."

Soon to be heard in some of her own Hungarian folk songs will be Mrs. W. Greene, widow of the late Mr. W. G. Greene, the well-known New Zealand artist.

New artists to sing shortly are: Miss Myrtle Wright, mezzo-soprano (of Dunsandel), and Mr. A. Mitchell, tenor.

GWLADYS EDWARDES.

A noted 2YA contralto, who has not long returned from Australia. During the forthcoming week she will broadcast from 1YA.
