FUTURE PROGRAMMES

SUNDAY

From Auckland

THE Divine Service will be relayed from the Baptist Tabernacle, the preacher being the Rev. Joseph Kemp, and the organist and choirmaster, Mr. Arthur E. Wilson.

Another fine programme has been arranged for the evening's after-church entertainment. The vocalists will be Miss Patricia McLeod (lyric soprano), who has included in her items, "With Verdure Clad"; Mr. A. B. Thompson (one of Auckland's outstanding artistic singers); and Mr. Ralph Eskrigge, who recently gave, with great success, a recital from this station. The Moore Sisters will be heard in several numbers, both instrumental and vocal.

Wellington Notes

THE evening service in St. Thomas's Anglican Church will be relayed. The preacher will be the Rev. C. V. Rooke, and the organist and choirmaster, Mr. R. A. Gatheridge.

At 8.15 p.m., approximately, a recital by the Port Nicholson Silver Band, under the conductorship of Mr. J. J. Drew, will be relayed from the Grand Opera House.

Christchurch Notes

THE Rev. W. Bower Black, LL.B., will be the preacher at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, when the service is to be broadcast. During the after-church concert, Moszkowski's "Duet for two violins" will be played by Miss Irene Morris and Mrs. A. H. Bills.

4YA Notes

THE service in Trinity Methodist Church will be broadcast this evening. The preacher will be the Rev. H. E. Bellhouse, and the choirmaster, Mr. J. Simpson.

A relay of 3YA's studio concert will follow.

MONDAY

From Wellington

THREE magnificent operatic numbers, with orchestral accompaniment, will be presented by Signor Cesaroni this evening—"Romance" (from "Il Trovatore"), the "Romance" (from "The Masked Ball"), and "Figaro's Song" (from "The Marriage of Figaro"). Cesaroni will also sing, with male chorus, "The Chorus of Dervishes" (from "The Ruins of Athens," by Beethoven). This, with Mr. Gordon Short's pianoforte solo, "Marcia Alla Turca," which follows, has not previously been heard "over the air" in New Zealand.

The company will also sing the "March" from "Tannhauser" and "Solemn Night" by Beethoven. A humorous duet from Mozart's "Don Juan" will be sung by Signor Cesaroni and Mr. G. Gray. The Orchestra's numbers will include Mendelssohn's delightful overture, "Fingal's Cave."

3YA Notes

AT 3YA, Messrs. E. E. Wiltshire and F. C. Fairclough will continue their series of dialogues on "The Story of the Garden."

The New Brighton Band, under Conductor J. A. Nuttall, will be the instrumentalists for 3YA's programme. Marches, waltzes, foxtrots and a selection, "Empire Band," will be played. The vocal programme will be provided by well-known 3YA artists.

From 4YA

AN exceptionally fine concert to be given in the Dunedin Town well-known in Christchurch dramatic circles. She will shortly produce the "Cottage Scene" from "The Lady of Lyons," by Lord Lytton.

NAARE HOOPER,

Hall by the Royal Dunedin Male Choir, under Dr. V. E. Galway, will be broadcast.

Part-songs and choruses will be a feature of the evening's entertainment. These numbers will include "Oft in the Stilly Night," "Hymn to Music," "Hohenlinden," "Volga Boat Song," the negro spiritual "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," and a number of sea chanties.

TUESDAY

Auckland Features

THE orchestra of the Auckland Orphans' Club, which last winter broadcast some very enjoyable programmes, will give the first of a series of monthly concerts.

Notes from 2YA

MRS. T. W. LEWIS will give another of her afternoon talks on "Fabrics and Fashions."

Marie Kura Girls' Choir

2YA, Tuesday

The concert from 2YA studio will be of the popular type. The Marie-kura Girls' Choir of sixteen voices, all of whom are capable soloists, will be heard for the first time on the air. They will sing choruses, quartets, duets and solos.

Mr. Reg. Blow, hitherto not heard from 2YA, comes with an outstanding reputation as a baritone, and his broadcast should prove entertaining.

4YA Items

THE second of "The Metropolis Series" of talks will be broadcast by Mr. Lloyd Ross, M.A., LL.B., under the auspices of the W.E.A. The subject will be "The Charm of London."

The band of the Otago Regiment (under Lieut. Llew O. Asten) and 4YA artists will provide the programme. The Radiettes will provide entertainment in song and dance.

Silent day at 3YA.

WEDNESDAY

Auckland Jottings

MR. H. DRIVER will broadcast a Book Review. The vocalists this evening include Miss Gwladys Edwardes, who is giving the second of her series of recitals at this studio; Miss Winifred Johnson (contralto) and Mr. Leslie Belcher (tenor), who is appearing before the microphone after a long absence. The Orchestral Octet, under the direction of Mr. Harold Baxter, has steadily gained in popularity with listeners, and once more a splendid programme of music has been arranged by them. Their items include "The Myrtle of Damascus," the suite "Itallana," and a violin solo "Liebeslied," with orchestral accompaniment.

2YA Topics

THE final instalment of the present series of international programmes will be presented. The lecturette will be given by Dr. Guy H. Scholefield, O.B.E.

3YA's Programme

A PUBLIC performance of the concert version of "Tannhauser" by the Royal Christchurch Musical Society will be relayed.
