

Feature Peeps

At

Future Programmes

SUNDAY From 1YA

FOLLOWING on the relay of the Pitt Street Methodist Church service, where the Rev. W. Walker will preach, with Professor W. A. Moor as organist and choirmaster, 1YA will broadcast a concert to be given in Albert Park by the Municipal Band.

2YA Notes

THE Rev. L. J. Boulton-Smith will be the preacher in the Vivian Street Baptist Church when the service will be broadcast. A studio concert by the Wellington Municipal Tramways Band will follow, with assisting vocalists. Cello solos by George Ellwood will consist of a series of national dances—Hungarian, Polish and Spanish.

Items from Christchurch

THE evening service in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Merivale,

Christchurch, will be broadcast. The Rev. G. W. Dent will be the preacher, with Dr. T. L. Crooke at the organ.

Of special interest on the studio concert programme will be a recital by Rex Harrison, the well-known baritone.

Contralto songs will be contributed by Mrs. R. J. Jamieson. On the instrumental side will be the Studio Orchestra, under Harold Beck.

4YA Notes

THE service to be conducted in Hanover Street Baptist Church by the Rev. Tuckwell will be broadcast. Mr. H. P. Desmoulins will be the choirmaster. A relay of 3YA's studio programme will follow.

MONDAY

Notes from Wellington

THE concert will be mainly of a classical nature, but a number of popular old favourites will be introduced. The vocal programme will be exceptionally good. The solos by Mrs. A. P. Truda, Mary Bald and Oswald McGuinness can be looked forward to, and the same three artists, along with Mr. Stanton, will form a fine quartet. The records will include a vocal duet by the renowned Gigle and Luca. Pianoforte recitals will be contributed by Alice E. Law,

FEATURETTES

Rex Harrison

3YA, Sunday.

Choral Society

4YA, Tuesday.

"Maid of the Mill"

4YA, Wednesday.

"Breaking the Ice"

2YA, Thursday.

clude two favourites, "On the Road to Mandalay" and "The Two Grenadiers." Christina Young will be heard in four contralto solos, and musical sketches will be presented by Mrs. John Hastings.

Items from Dunedin

THE Dunedin Choral Society, under Alfred Walmesley, assisted by Madame Reggiardo's Instrumental Sextet, will provide the programme.

The choral numbers will include "Hail, Gift of Song," "Epilogue" (from "Caractacus"), "Hear My Prayer," "See the Conquering Hero Comes," "Be Not Afraid," "Hallelujah Chorus," and "Thanks Be to God."

WEDNESDAY

1YA Selections

THE speaker for the W.E.A. session will be the Rev. W. Jellie, who will continue his talks on "Literature and Life." On the evening's concert programme will appear the Mounce Sisters in a series of popular songs: "Sweet Jennie Lee," "Indiana Sweetheart," "Button Up Your Overcoat," and "It Goes Like This."

Kathleen Mulqueen and Len Barnes will present the song cycle "On the River," and they will also be heard in the duet "The Day is Done." Hawaiian numbers will be played by the Waikiki Trio, and the Watters Duo (saxophone and piano) will entertain with novelty numbers. At 8.47 Mr. Arthur Ross will talk on "The Origin of Certain Popular Superstitions and Customs."

2YA Topics

FROM noon race results at Trentham will be broadcast, and at 7.40 Mr. A. E. Wilson speaks on "Tourist and Holiday Resorts." The evening's programme will comprise recorded music, vocal and instrumental. At 9 o'clock Dr. Guy H. Scholesfield, O.B.E., will deliver his weekly lecturette.

Broadcast from Christchurch

PLAYING "Le Seigneur de Kernor," the Studio Orchestra will open the programme. Other numbers will be "The Doll's House" suite, Finck's "Song of My Heart," "A Street in Algiers," and "Waltz of the Flowers." Lottie Colville (soprano), Myra Sutton (contralto), and Percy Nicholls (tenor) will be the vocalists in a bright and varied programme.

Notes from Dunedin

THE concert presentation by Alfred Walmesley and Dr. V. E. Galway,

LESLIE FLEMING,

a popular Christchurch bass, who will next appear from 3YA on January 18.

and the 2YA Orchestrina, under Signor A. P. Truda, will add its share to the evening's melody.

Christchurch Jottings

A PROGRAMME by the Woolston Band (conductor, R. J. Estall) will be broadcast. In view of the approaching contest in Wellington the band is at the top of its form and has arranged an excellent programme.

From 4YA

THE programme will consist entirely of selected recorded items.

TUESDAY

Features from 1YA

THE Rev. W. Monckton, M.A., will continue his series of talks on "Present Day Problems" during the W.E.A. session. A half-hour recital of recorded operatic numbers (vocal and orchestral) will follow a programme of popular items.

Jottings from Wellington

LISTENERS should find entertaining a noteworthy bass-baritone, Trevor Thomas, whose solos will in-

MORE BARGAINS MORE BARGAINS

NEW LOW PRICES NEW LOW PRICES

Limited Stocks—Send Cash
with Order—Please include freight.

TRANSFORMERS.

Jefferson AF oversize. Were 12/6.
Now 8/6
Zadek AF special windings. Were 14/6.
Now 12/6
Freshman Output 1-1 ratio. Were 10/-.
Now 5/-

INSULATORS.

Beehive Insulators for transmitters. Were 2/6.
Now 2/-
Glass Special Lo-Loss. Were 1/-.
Now 9d.

VARIABLE CONDENSERS.

Quaker Var. Condensers. Were 8/6.
Now, any size, 6/-
J.B. De Luxe Var. Condensers, various sizes. Were 12/- to 14/-.
Now 11/- to 13/-
Continental Condensers. Were 7/6, any size.
Now 6/-

BATTERIES.

Lissen 41-v. C Batteries. Now 9d.

SWITCHES AND PLUGS.

Automatic Switches for eliminators and trickle chargers. Were 21/-.
Now 10/-
Frost Snap Switches. Were 2/9.
Now 1/9
Marco Multi Plugs. Were 4/6.
Now 3/-
H. & H. Sure-Grip Plugs. Were 2/3.
Now 2/-

DIALS.

Bakelite 4in. Were 2/-.
Now 1/6
Bakelite 3in. Were 1/6.
Now 1/3
Bakelite 2in. Were 1/3.
Now 1/-

COILS AND BASES.

6-Pin Coil Bases. Were 3/3.
Now 2/-
6-Pin Coil Formers. Were 4/-.
Now 3/-
Aero S-Wave Coils, 15-180 meters. Were 25/-.
Now 15/-

L. B. SCOTT LTD.

MANCHESTER AND WORCESTER STREETS, CHRISTCHURCH.