PRIVATE STATION PROGRAMMES

2ZW Notes

LISTENERS to 2ZW this week will notice two new announcing voices. The new lady announcer is Miss Joan Laird, succeeding Mrs. D. Basham, who is travelling to the Auckland district shortly. Miss Laird is a soprano well known in Auckland and Wellington, and she has also had the honour of performing for the B.B.C., London. It is Miss Laird's intention to make the Women's session as bright and popular as possible.

THE new evening announcer is Mr. O. M. Henriel, who is also programme organiser. Mr. Henriel succeeds Mr. F. W. Barker, who has been acting-announcer since the resignation of Mr. L. E. Strachan, and whose cheery personality has become very popular with his many listeners. Mr. Henriel has had considerable experience in the choral and orchestral world in England, where he has performed, amongst others, with the London Bach Choir. 2ZW listeners can therefore continue to look forward to enjoyable programmes in the future.

IT is with very many regrets that station 2ZW has to announce that there will be no further Ultimate News Bulletins broadcast at 9 p.m. in the future. This will doubtless cause disappointment to very many of the listeners who tune in nightly to this service. The cancellation of this service is due to the fact that the new radio regulations recently gazetted prohibit the regular publication or broadcasting of overseas news picked up by radio.
