RADIO SERVICEMEN!

The modern radio, power-operated and with all the modern improvements, is a long way removed from the comparatively simple sets that used to be built by almost anyone. The present sets have outgrown the average man, so that service work today must be done by the man who knows absolutely knows—radio and doesn't guess about it. THE I.C.S. SPECIAL COURSE FOR RADIO SERVICE MAN'S EXAM, trains men for real success in Radio. Write us for particulars and illustrated literature.
