A.B.C. Symphony Orchestra In Compositions from English Composers

A GLANCE over the programmes to be presented from the leading Sydney and Melbourne stations next week would suggest that the leading feature of the week will be the concert by the A.B.C. (Sydney) Symphony Orchestra, assisted by Spencer Thomas (tenor) and Mischa Dobrinski (violinist). This concert, which is to be given from 2FC on Thursday, September 7, will consist of the work of English composers. On the same evening, Mr. C. B. Westmacott, general manager of J. C. Williamson's, will give a talk on the theatre.

On Sunday, September 3, from this same station, Ernest McKinlay will sing, and John Masefield's "Esther" will be performed. From 2BL on Tuesday, September 5, the Sydney Male Voice Choir, conducted by Christian Hellemann (well-known in Wellington as a former conductor of the Choral Society) will give a concert. On the following Friday there will be a Red Cross rally in the form of a musical revue.

From 3LO on Friday, September 8, there will be a band concert, followed by Bertie Knowall in a sketch "Love" and "The Wrecker," by Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osborne.

- 9.15: Mrs. R. R. S. McKinnon, O.B.E., will give a short talk in connection with Red Cross Week.
