Australian Programmes Should Please Both Highbrows and Lowbrows

Whether you're highbrow or lowbrow, mezzo-brow or no brow at all, there's something to please you in the Australian programmes for the coming week—vaudeville, revue, light opera, straight comedy, orchestral concerts, a brass band concert, community singing and dance programme. From Sydney there will be two song recitals by Stewart Wilson, the English tenor—one from 2FC on Thursday, September 21, and the other from 2BL on the next evening. On the same programme from 2FC will be Isidor Goodman, who toured New Zealand recently.

The A.B.C. Revue Company will present a programme from 2FC on Saturday, September 23, entitled "Pierrot Etchings." The cast includes Yvonne Benvard, who was in New Zealand with "Rose Marie." From 3LO there will be a light opera session on Wednesday, September 20, and a presentation of John Drinkwater's play, "Oliver Cromwell" two evenings later.

tenor, Isidor Goodman, pianist, and the A.B.C. (Sydney) Symphony Orchestra, conducted by E. J. Roberts. The Orchestra, "Coriolanus" (Beethoven); "La Chasse Du Prince Arthur" (Ropartz); "Symphony No. 2" Op. 36 (Beethoven); "March Heroique" and "Phaeton" Symphonic Poem (St. Saens) and with Isidor Goodman, "Concerto No. 2 in B Flat Major" Op. 83 (Brahms).
