

Clarence B. Hall with Miss Nancy Bowden (contralto), Mr. Ernest Jenner (pianist), and Mr. W. H. Dixon (tenor), as assisting soloists.

THE Monday evening talks (details of which will be found under the heading "Spotlights on the Programmes,") will deal with potato growing, motoring, "The Borer," "Better-

MR. FRANK MILNER RETURNS

A National Reception to be Broadcast by IYA

Cabled advice received from California by Mr. T. C. List, Governor of Rotary in the Dominion, states that Mr. Frank Milner's mission to that State proved a wonderful success.

Mr. Milner left Vancouver on September 17 on his return to the Dominion. On his arrival at Auckland on Monday next, October 2, he is to be given a national welcome, this will take place in the Auckland Town Hall at 8 p.m., and will be broadcast on relay by IYA. The Mayor of Auckland, Mr. George Hutchison, will preside, and the speakers will include His Grace Archbishop Averill and the Hon. Sir James Parr.

ment of the Race," and events of historical importance.

GOLFERS will be interested to hear Mr. A. J. Shaw's talk from IYA on Tuesday evening, at 7.30, when this well-known New Zealand professional will speak on "Hints around the Green." The weekly agricultural talk and a "Wanderlust" talk by Mr. F. M. Renner will be broadcast by 2YA at 7.40 and 8.40 p.m. respectively. From 3YA Miss G. Scott-Baker will speak on "Books" (at 7.35), and from 4YA at 7.30 Mr. J. M. Bates will give the second of his talks on "The Human Side of Great Thinkers," dealing on this occasion with Socrates.

MR. GILBERT ARCHIE, M.A., will continue his talks on "World Races and the Maori" from IYA at 7.30 on Wednesday evening, and from the same station at 9.2 p.m. Lieut. H. A. Haynes will continue his "Musings under the White Ensign." The weekly gardening talk will be broadcast by 2YA at 7.30, and at 8.40 p.m. Dr. Guy H. Scholefield will present his weekly topical talk on "World Affairs." Followers of racing will no doubt have their sets tuned to 4YA at 7.40, when Mr. R. McKenzie will review the forthcoming Dunedin Jockey Club's spring meeting.

THE Thursday evening talks will bring three speakers before IYA's microphone. At 7.30 Mr. D. W. Faigan will speak on the eminent English author, Mr. J. B. Priestly. Mr. Harold Black will give an introductory talk on the New Zealand golf championships at 9.2 p.m., and at 9.12, Mr. George O'Halloran will speak on "The Ancient Castle of Dunster." "The Control of Life" and "Croquet of To-day" are the titles of two talks from 2YA, and from 3YA Mr. A. G. Thompson will give the second of a series of talks on "Songs that will never die."

TALKS of interest to sporting enthusiasts are scheduled by IYA and 4YA on Friday evening. Mr. John Harris will continue his talks on Canada from IYA. A representative of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will speak from 2YA at 7.40, and Dr. A. D. Carbery will speak from the same station at 8.40 p.m. on "The Uses of Art." From 3YA Mr. Winstone Rhodes, M.A., will commence a series of talks on "The English Novel of Last Century," and from 4YA at 7.30 Mr. J. M. Bates will speak on "The Human Side of the Great Thinker—David Hume."

A HORTICULTURAL talk and a summary of the day's play in the

New Zealand golf championship meeting will be broadcast by IYA on Saturday. The only other talks scheduled for this evening are from 2YA, Professor P. W. Robertson speaking on "The Modern Novel—Remembrance of Things Past," and Mr. E. J. C. Wiffin speaking on "The Fascination of Fishing."

A SUNDAY evening talk is scheduled by IYA, when Mr. W. D'Arcy Cresswell will speak at 9.2 p.m. on "Modern English Poets." Included in IYA's Sunday afternoon programme is a recorded talk at 3.30 p.m. entitled "Passages of Prose." A recorded talk will also be presented by 2YA at 3.30 p.m.; 3YA will present a recorded talk at 2.45 p.m., and 4YA will present Sir Charles Ohman's recorded talk "What History Means to Man." This is timed for 2.45 p.m.

WONDERFUL NOVEL SEEDS

GIANT CABBAGE—Weights up to 50lb. Easily grown; excellent for table—1/- a packet.

VEGETABLE PEACH—An ornamental annual vine with delicious sweet fruit, about the size of an orange—1/- a packet.

GIANT BEAN—A Runner Bean with giant pods up to 3ft. Always tender—1/- a packet.

BLUE BEAN—A striking French Bean, with blue leaves, blue flowers and blue pods. The beans are delicious—1/- a packet.

GREEN SPROUTS—A delicious green Cauliflower with edible crown and stem. The more it is cut, the more crowns it produces—1/- a packet.

MAXIMUM CARROT—Superb vegetable, often 3ft. long and 6in. thick, and always deliciously tender—1/- a packet.

WINTER CHERRY—A showy annual that is covered in the autumn with brilliant scarlet fruit—1/- a packet.

SUNSET LETTUCE—A new and amusing lettuce with bright red leaves. Very good to eat—1/- a packet.

VASE VINE—A striking annual, whose highly-coloured hollow fruit makes delightful vases—1/- a packet.

ORDINARY SEEDS, 1d. a packet—Carrot, Cabbage, Turnip (Swede or White), Antirrhinum, Larkspur, Cosmos (all full-sized packets, 1d. a packet). All other ordinary seeds, 2d. a packet. Peas and Beans, 3d. a packet.

EDIBLE PODDED BROAD BEAN—A Broad Bean that is cooked like a French Bean—1/- a packet.

CHINESE CABBAGE—A delicious Cabbage with pure white heart and edible white stalk. The foliage is light green—1/- a packet.

AFRICAN CUCUMBER—When green is eaten like ordinary Cucumber. When ripe turns brilliant orange and is eaten like passion fruit. Most delightful flavour—1/- a packet.

JAPANESE CUCUMBER—A new, enormously hardy and prolific Cucumber that climbs fences like a runner bean—1/- a packet.

SPINACH PLANT—A bush that gives a perpetual supply of Spinach throughout most of the year—1/- a packet.

OYSTER PLANT—When grown and cooked according to our instructions this vegetable is hardly distinguishable from oysters—1/- a packet.

PERENNIAL CAULIFLOWER—A most marvellous vegetable, producing 12 to 20 large heads a year—1/- a packet.

HARDY MELON—A Rock Melon that grows very far south—1/- a packet.

Any three 1/- packets for 2/6; any seven for 5/-; 12 for 9/-; or the whole lot for 12/6.

Clip this list. Put a cross in front of the items wanted, add your name and address, and forward to us with payment in Postal Notes, plus 1d. for postage, and an extra penny for postage on each packet of Peas or Beans. Seeds will be sent by return mail. No order less than 1/-.

FRIENDSHIP SEED CO.

DEPT. R, BOX 1320, AUCKLAND.