

“With the Wailers I never got the privileges to sing the songs that I write”

“Now I am a writer, producer, director, performer . . . everything it takes to make music”

“My words without the music sounds too aggressive. With the music you think less of the words . . . you listen and dance”

DANCE

LISTEN

Produced and arranged by Peter Tosh and 'Word Sound and Power'.
Recorded at Kingston, Jamaica and New York City. Featuring Robbie
Shakespeare on bass and Sly Dunbar on drums. A Rolling Stones record.