CONTINUED FROM ABOVE Meg and the Pegs and others between Sept 15 and 22 ... The Kiwi Animal take off on tour, playing mainly alternative venues throughout the North Island ... and acoustic music of a slightly different shade will be provided by Taranaki Sol and Mike Harding on their Freakers' Ball tour. Christchurch's Alternative Entertainment Bureau takes over the Star & Garter Sept 14,15 to present a host of different bands from various parts of the country. They are also putting on fortnightly Dole Day Afternoons at the Gladstone and the odd fillum too ... Car Crash Set and Marginal Era team up at Quays nightclub for a RWP special on Sept 27 ... local metallers Knightshade (recently featured on RWP and on Jayrem's Three Points Of Metal LP) play a number of North Island dates, including under-age gigs with Stonehenge in Tauranga and Hamilton

... Dave McArtney is busy first teaming up with the Narcs and later in the month with a reconstituted Pink Flamingos.

The Arts, etc.

Much interest is focused on the contemporary opera, Waituhi: The Life Of A Village, which finishes its run at the Wellington State Opera House Sept 14 and 15. The opera is based on the 1974 novel Whanau, by Witi Ihimaera and Ihimaera has collaborated with Ross Harris on writing it . Auckland's Little Theatre in Princes St also has an Elizabethan domestic tragedy Arden Of Faversham finishing Sept 15 ... the Dance Co-operative will present Moving Images, an evening of modern dance at the Green Bay High School auditorium, Sept 14 at 8pm.

Coming Up ...

Cabaret Voltaire have been confirmed for Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch in early November. Don McLean plays the Logan Campbell Centre Oct 27 ... the REM tour projected for this year will now probably happen early 1985 ... Echo and the Bunnymen likely for December but Psychedelic Furs are off Stevie Ray Vaughan in December Never ask for dark rum by its colour. Ask for it by the label.
