The Big Yes! No!

Auckland ... the Chills begin their last NZ appearances before heading for Europe. The gigs include live performances of the Chills In Space Show at the Windsor, June 28 and 29 ... Tim Shadbolt, Gary McCormick and Tom Scott hit the road together in July to take on guest debating teams up and down the country in The Great Debate and Comedy Show.

Aussie comedian George Smilovici returns for a national tour, kicking off with Telethon appearances in Christchurch at the end of June. On tour he'll be taking two members of Auckland comedy team Funny Business, Willy De Wit and Chris Hegan ... Gore-based promotion company Touring Party Promotions has expanded its activities to take in Invercargill and Queenstown. First tour in last weekend of June will feature Sneaky Feelings, Jesuits Birthday and Geneva.

The Bats back up their new EP with gigs including a visit to the Windsor and performances at the 'Free Art' exhibition at the McDougall Gallery and at the new Christchurch Youth Centre (in the old Cinerama building) on June 29 ... the Blues Busters play around the top of the North Island ... and Sam Hunt tours around the bottom of the South ... a reconstituted Back Door Blues Band plays various South Island venues.

Dunedin's Doublehappys venture

north to play the Windsor June 21-22 ... as do Wellington's Circus Block 4, July 5-6 ... Working With Walt resurface with a weekend at the Windsor, July 12-13 ... Last Man Down will be plugging their highly-rated State House Kid LP at Auckland's Globe and Performance Cafe several times during the month ... Diving Off the Deep End, the exhibition by Auckland artist Dean Buchanan, continues at the Last and First Cafe until June 23.
