SHOW US YOUR FLY

AND WIN THE AC/DC
RECORD BOX SET

It's so simple. Just design and build a rotten, horrible, disgusting fly, any size will do.

Then take it dead or alive, struggling or subdued, to your nearest record store. Drop it in their protesting hands and pretty soon you could discover you've won the AC/DC seven record box set. Heaps better than watching the Sunday Horrors on TV.

Fly store delivery deadline, accompanied by this entry form, is Saturday 7th September. And don't forget to put your name on your fly. Winners will be notified by September 27th.
