LOVE KILLS

Sid & Nancy Film Soundtrack

A fine collection of tracks from Alex Cox's remarkable followup to 'Repo Man'. The film is based on the life of Sex Pistol Sid Vicious. Tracks include Joe Strummer's 'Love Kills' & 'Dum Dum Club' and songs by John Cale, Pogues, Circle Jerks and Steve Jones.

RIC OCASEK

This Side of Paradise

Ric continues to develop his solo niche independent of the Cars' distinctive sound. Collaborators such as Billy Idol guitarist Steve Stevens, Tom Verlaine, members of Cars and producer Chris Hughes (Tears For Fears) all contribute muscle to Ric Ocasek's distinctive lyrical and vocal style.

ALPHAVILLE

Afternoons in Utopia

This Berlin based trio is releasing its second LP, following-up their debut 'Forever Young'. Founding members Gold & Lloyd have been joined by new recruit Ricky Echolette. More entrancing, sophisticated pop/rock including single 'Dance With Me'.

CHICAGO

18

On this their third Warner Bros album, once again David Foster produces but soloing bassist Peter Cetera is replaced by Jason Scheff. One of the 10 originals is an update of their 1970 hit '25 or 6 to 4'. It's a smash hit once again!

MILES DAVIS

Tutu

The Warner Bros label debut by the jazz legend who has helped shape the course of modern music. 'Tutu' is co-produced by former Davis sideman, bassist Marcus Miller, Tommy LiPuma and George Duke. Material includes Scritti Politti's 'Perfect Way' and Duke's 'Backyard Ritual'.

PEABO BRYSON

Quiet Storm

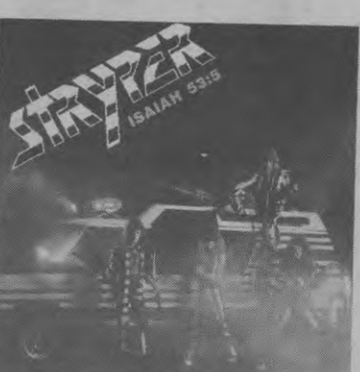

Here are eight of the kind of smooth soulful numbers that earned Peabo the title 'The Gentleman of Soul'. One of soul's great voices, Peabo Bryson is back to capture your heart.

BUDDY HOLLY

Legend

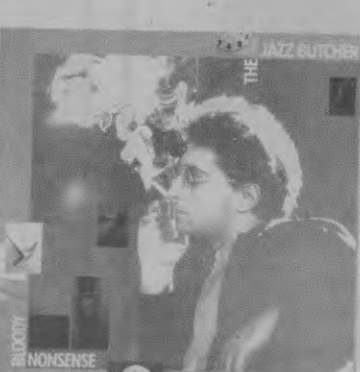

A double album gate-fold sleeve compilation of 20 remastered gems by Buddy Holly & the Crickets. That'll Be the Day, 'Rave On', 'Peggy Sue', 'Not Fade Away' etc.

STRYPER

Soldiers Under Command

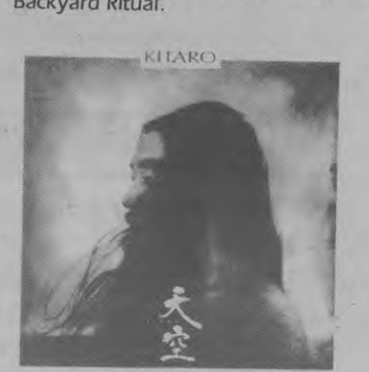

HM with a difference — Stryper once were Roxx Regime playing metal with conventional lyrics — but they found religion and now rock out with 'god-rock'. Sell-out tours testify to Stryper's power to rock with the best of 'em!

THE JAZZ BUTCHER

Blood Nonsense

A compilation LP drawn from three UK albums by this arty London quartet. The LP has been likened to 'Lloyd Cole on weird drugs'.

KITARO

Tenku

The first release on Geffen Records by Japanese synthesiser genius Kitaro. A major 1980s work, a full digital recording, solely featuring the music and arrangements of Kitaro.

Forthcoming albums to look out for include Pretenders 'Get Close', Brilliant 'Kiss the Lips of Life', Pete Townshend 'Another Scoop', Howard Jones 'One to One', Warren Zevon 'The Uneven Dozen' (Best of), Aretha Franklin '30 Greatest Hits', Falco 'Emotional' and Alice Cooper 'Constrictor'.

A new video release is INXS live vid 'Living Inxs' — an electrifying live performance — 11 tracks including 'Burn For You', 'Original Sin', 'This Time', 'Kiss the Dirt' etc. Look out for Sylvester with his 12" single version of Stevie Wonder's 'Living For the City'. Auckland band Soul On Ice have released their debut 45 'I Want Love'. A new CASSETTE-ONLY release is the fourth LP from Zapp entitled 'The New Zapp IV U'. Features dance hits 'Computer Love' and 'Itchin For Your Twichin'.

Rockit

Rockit 300w Professional Bass System

"It's the best Bass Amplifier around because it's easy to use, proved very reliable on the road and best of all it preserves the natural sound of my instrument."
