

THE LATEST LIMITED EDITION PRINT

"The gravel voice of the troubled prophet . . .
 . . . a prophet of hope in these troubled times." Guy Rook

"The Times they are a changin'."

A symbolic interpretation of the classic Bob Dylan composition. Illustrated by Rock Artist Guy Rook, it is the latest edition in the Classic Rock Art Collection. These are original lithographic prints, on top quality fine art paper, individually signed and numbered by the artist.

Rock Artists Stafford, Hanna and Rook have deliberately chosen the exacting medium of pencil illustration to render these thematic works in fine detail and to create effects in harmony with the works of the musicians which could not be achieved in any other way.

Each Edition is limited to a thousand prints before the plates are destroyed to guarantee that no copies or reproduction in any form will be made. Be sure to acquire your Limited Edition print early to avoid disappointment.

If coupon removed write to Mindseye Marketing Machine, P.O. Box 37-509 Parnell, Auckland, NZ. Ph. (09) 502-585.

There will be absolutely no extension of any edition. 1,000 prints only.

I wish to acquire the Limited Edition print(s) from the Classic Rock Art collection. I understand the print(s) will be individually hand signed and numbered by the artist. I enclose a cheque/postal note for $82.50 inc GST (Money back guarantee, Postage & Packing included).
