Look Our For ...

Prodigal sons Split Enz make their first ever summer tour this festive season, kicking off with a New Year's Eve bash at Mt Smart Stadium and finishing in Christchurch with a QEII Park concert. All dates except Dunedin will be outdoors so fingers crossed for a long, hot summer!

Aussies the Angels finish off their pub tour of the country at Mainstreet, Dec 10. Support for the tour is the Legionnaires ... sophisticates Manhattan Transfer play Auckland and Wellington Dec 17,18.

Much interest is likely to be generated by the Blam Blam Blam revival in January. The band plays Auckland's Gluepot Jan 20,21 and underage gig at SPAM Jan 22. The gigs are to raise money for the still financially crippled Propeller Records.

The two North Island beach tours for this year are DD Smash and the Pink Flamingos with the Narcs. Watch out for them at your camping ground ... another tour which will hit beach resorts but in a slightly different way is the Great Unwashed tour which covers parks, streets, camping grounds and sometimes even actual buildings the length of the nation from New Year's Eve. The Kilgour brothers will be taking with them Clean founder member Peter Gutteridge.

Flying Nun wonders Children's Hour undertake a December tour which covers Dunedin, Christchurch, Wellington and Palmerston North, kicking off in Dunedin ... Netherworld Dancing Toys follow up their extremely successful Auckland visit of earlier this year with another pre-Xmas tour.

Dance Exponents headline for the first time at the Christchurch Town Hall on Dec 29.
