

REFERENCES

- 1 The Eagle [magazine of St John's College], VI (1869), 333 ff. See also 'Recollections of a Nonogenarian' by R. Y. Whytehead, typescript amongst Thomas Whytehead Papers in St John's College Library, Cambridge.
- 2 Biographical information is principally drawn from Poetical Remains and Letters of the Late Rev. Thomas Whytehead, M.A. . . . [edited by his nephew Thomas Bowman Whytehead] (London, 1877). This work was a new edition of Whytehead's Poems (London, 1842) with a memoir contributed anonymously by T. B. Whytehead, and a preface by Dean Howson of Chester. There is also a biographical article in the Eagle, X (1878), 291-303, and an introduction by T. F. Knox to Whytehead's College Life: Letters to an Under-Graduate (Cambridge, 1845).
- 3 Whytehead to his mother, Jan. 1834 (Whytehead Papers).
- 4 'Biographical Notes: Members of the College', in SJC Library, Camb.
- 5 His Hulsean Essay was entitled 'The Resemblance Between Moses and Christ'; printed in Remains, p. 142 ff.
- 6 Remains, p. 81-2. He was ordained priest by the Bishop of Winchester 13 Dec. 1840.
- 7 Enclosed in 'Prayerbook inscribed to Mrs Selwyn', ATL (MS Why 1841-43).
- 8 Clipping from the English Churchman, [n.d.], in Whytehead Papers. Under Whytehead's tutelage Clive excelled, gaining a 1st class Tripos in only two years.
- 9 Sarah Selwyn to Miss Cotton, 15 Jun. 1841; qMS Selwyn Papers 1839-65, v.2 (ATL). The Tomatin sailed from Sydney in June, the impatient Bishop having already gone ahead with W. C. Cotton, his second chaplain.
- 10 W. C. Cotton, 28 Oct. 1842, qMS Selwyn Papers 1839-65, v.2. (ATL).
- 11 Whytehead to F. W. H. [Harper?], 3 Mar. 1843; Remains, p. 126. See also p. 115.
- 12 W. C. Cotton, 'Journal', in Remains, p. 135 ff. Whytehead was buried in the Waimate churchyard where his grave is easily identified.
- 13 Remains, p. xi. No portrait of Whytehead exists, the likeness in the St John's chapel having been painted from a school friend of his nephew who resembled him.
- 14 The Eagle, X, 294.
- 15 Remains, p. 202. The poem is dated August 1837 at Ambleside. See also Sarah Selwyn on 24 Oct. 1843, Micro MS 431 (ATL). After the death of his sister, William Bolland emigrated to join his friend and take up farming. The first news he heard on arrival was of Whytehead's death. He then took orders, was posted to New Plymouth in late 1843, but died on 30 May 1847.
- 16 The Eagle, X, 299.
- 17 Nevertheless it would have cost '6 or 7 £' to entertain his sister and her husband Robert Boulton in hall. Whytehead to sister Anne, 5 May 1833 (Whytehead Papers). Remains, p. 64.
- 18 T. Whytehead, College Life: Letters to an Under-Graduate (Cambridge, 1845). He wrote editorial instructions to T. F. Knox only five days before his death. A second edition was published at London, 1856.
- 19 College Life, 1845 ed., chapter 1, 'The Origin and End of the Collegiate System'.
- 20 College Life, p. 92.
- 21 College Life, p. 130 ff.
- 22 Remains, p. 219-20. Dated April 1840.
- 23 Thus J. S. Howson in Remains, p. 93.
- 24 Whytehead Papers. See also Remains, p. 251.