

Mr R. S. Von Kohorn, Mrs R. Voss.

Waikato Art Museum, Mrs P. Walker, Dr J. Walton, Wanganui City Library, Mr F. W. Ward, Miss J. Ward, Mrs P. Watt, Mr A. V. Watson, Wellington Amalgamated Watersiders' Industrial Union of Workers, Wellington Harbour Board Maritime Museum, Wellington Operatic Society, Mr A. H. Whitaker, Miss A. L. White, Mrs A. White, Miss J. White, Mrs D. Whitehall, Mr N. D. Whiting, Mrs H. E. Whyte, Mrs V. E. Wickes, Mr H. W. Wickham, Mrs H. G. Wiggins, Mrs K. M. Wildgoose, Mr C. A. Williams, Mr G. C. Williams, Mrs H. R. Williams, Mr C. R. E. Wilson, Mr M. A. Wiltshire, Mrs J. W. Winchester, Mrs D. B. Withers Jr., Mr K. J. Wood, Mrs A. Woodhouse, Mr D. Woolcott, Mr & Mrs R. Wright.

Dr J. Yaldwyn, Mr J. M. Younger, Family of the late Mr A. C. Youngman.

Notes on Contributors

A. G. BAGNALL, OBE, MA(HONS), FNZLA, one-time Chief Librarian (1966–1973) and Record editor (1967–1976), historian and bibliographer, is in the former area of interest currently working on a history of the North Island volcanic plateau.

WARREN LIMBRICK, MA, BD, is Warden of Selwyn College at Otago University and teaches part-time in its Faculty of Theology. He is currently editing a collection of essays reassessing Bishop Selwyn's significance and continues to work on the history of the colonial Church in New Zealand.

J. E. TRAUE, MA(HONS), FNZLA, is Chief Librarian of the Alexander Turnbull Library. He is the compiler of New Zealand Books in Print 1964, the editor of Who's Who in New Zealand (1978) and has published articles on bibliography, publishing history and librarianship.