

Mr Weld's boots or Doing business

JUNE STARKE

'The Provincial Council of Marlboro' N.Z. Doing business at Picton.' Ink drawing from W. W. Hawkins' Diary, 1864-66. (qMS 1864-66)

NOTICE OF MOTION

Waterloo Day

Given 18 day of June 1861

Mr. Domett

on the 19 day of 1861

To move—

That the appearance of any of the Ministers in this House in quasi or semi Military costume is a practice calculated to alarm sensitive Constitutional Minds, & the first step towards an arbitrary interference with the freedom of debate so justly prized by this House as its dearest privilege.

Mr W[eld] to move as an amendment that Mr Domett be constituted a bootjack.
