- 1 Pioneers in this field were J. L. Flandrin, Families in Former Times (Cambridge, 1976); Lawrence Stone, The Family, Sex and Marriage in England 1500-1800 (London, 1977); Edward Shorter, The Making of the Modern Family (London, 1976); Randolph Trumbach, The Rise of the Egalitarian Family (New York, 1978). In 1981 a collection of essays Marriage and Society: Studies in the Social History of Marriage, edited by R. B. Outhwaite, appeared and the Journal of Social History, 15, no. 3 (Spring 1982) was a special issue on the history of love. More recent is Ellen K. Rothman, Hands and Hearts: A History of Courtship in America (New York, 1984).

- 4 These letters are in the Alexander Turnbull Library, McLean Papers, MS Papers 32. Hereinafter references to these papers are given as 32/ with the folder number following. The abbreviations SS are used for Susan Strang (before and after her marriage) and DM for Donald McLean. McLean's diaries, to which reference is also made, are in the Library's MS sequence. Punctuation used in quotations is as in the original letters and diaries. I would like to thank the Turnbull manuscript librarians for their assistance to me when working on these papers.
