

Governor General invested

Maoridom was proud to accompany her son, Sir Paul Reeves to begin his work as Governor General. His tribe, Te Atiawa, was joined by nga iwi o te motu as he was greeted by the Prime Minister David Lange and his wife Naomi. He then inspected the Armed Forces guard of honour before being called up the steps of Parliament.

