

ABOVE Kaiangahoa mail boxes, where the road used to finish by the old Rawhiti School.

RIGHT Taurangi Clendon (Te Nana) and her two grandchildren, reading mail delivered by Fuller's Cream trip three times a week. This was picked up by rowing boat from the ferry which came into the lee of Tawiriwiri Island — an ancient garden site which in 1971, was still being used.

BELOW Puti Puru watching Arthur Hakaraia secure her dingy in Kaiangahoa.

FAR RIGHT Barracouta, snapper and one red pigfish (pakura) caught nearby.
