

L.T.L. Reports.

TURAKINA.

June 27. First meeting. Over 30 children present, and the young officers took their places at the table and performed their duties very creditably. A short programme was given by the children, and an address by the Superintendent. A song was sung in unison, and closed the meeting.

On June 12th Mrs Duxfield visited Turakina, and organised a branch in the Maori Girls' School. The following evening a public meeting was held in the Public Hall, the attendance being very good. Mrs Duxfield explained the working of the L.T.L., and, after teaching the children a song, organised a branch, officers being elected as follows:— Superintendent, Mrs Wilson, assisted by Miss Leigh. Refreshments were handed around, and the singing of the Doxology concluded a very successful night.

ARAMOHO.

May 24. Opening session, attendance good. The President's prize for training most new members resulted in the between Ada and Vera Gilmour, and each received a book. Three new members.

June 9. Our first Band of Mercy meeting. Recitations and readings, and lessons on kindness to animals. The new members took the pledge. Meeting closed with Mizpah Benediction.

June 21. Weather bad, attendance poor. Temperance lessons. Election of officers: Pres., Lexie Christie; Vice-Pres., George Whitlock and Rita Jones; Sec., Elsie Dudley; Treas., Maurice Dudley; Librarian, Eileen Gilmour; Supt. "Young Crusader," Lexie Christie; Pres. Band of Mercy, Elsie Dudley. Five new members enrolled.

LOYAL TEMPERANCE LEGION.

(Helen G. Rice.)

Answer, soul of mine—which way
 hast thou made a road to-day?
 Hast thou followed Love's sure chime over hill and over plain?
 Whichever choice thou'st made,
 there another road is laid—
 not a transient, fading trail.

Not a path that shall not fail,
 yermore some foot shall stray
 over the road thou mad'st this day.
 Let each of us beware
 how his thoughts and motive bear!
 Every road that we shall choose,

Every pilgrim feet will use.
 One will follow where we lead
 as life shapes life, indeed,
 have a brother's care, and pray
 to mark thy road each day.

—James Buckham.

Y's Reports.

INVERCARGILL.

April 2. A good attendance. Debate on "Does the girl of the period spend too much time on dress?" was very interesting, nearly all the girls taking part. Miss Seed, our delegate, gave an interesting report of Convention, and was heartily thanked. She also reported that she had purchased a dozen copies of Convention number of the "White Ribbon," and distributed them in the hope of getting new members, and had donated 10s to the Dominion Fund on behalf of the Union.

NELSON.

President in the chair. Finished reading Convention report. A bright, happy meeting.

AUCKLAND.

June 30. Attendance very poor. Part of the report of Convention was read by our delegates. Mrs Cook, President of the Mothers' Union, was present, and spoke a few words to us, which were very helpful and very interesting.

ARAMOHO.

June 17. A very enjoyable social was given by the Y's to their returned soldier friends. Attendance of over 150, both khaki and the white bow being very much in evidence. The decorations were chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, flags and evergreens decorated with tiny white bows of ribbon. Miss Campbell was in the chair, and welcomed the returned men and visitors in a neat speech. Mrs Bathgate returned thanks for so many men spared to come back to their homeland. A special feature was six living tableaux: (1) Before and After Marriage, (2) Ruth and Naomi, (3) Angel's Lullaby, (4) Peace and War, (5) His Only Pair, (6) New Zealand and Britannia. A programme of songs and recitations was very much enjoyed, and a missing word competition. Mrs Bathgate was presented with a beautifully bound volume of Wordsworth as a token of love and esteem from the Y's to their loved leader. Mrs Bathgate feelingly replied. A dainty supper was provided, and 13 of those present responded to the appeal for new members. Votes of thanks were given to all who had assisted, special mention being made of Mr Davis, who had so successfully arranged the tableaux.
