

PAY-UP SOCIALS.

Our year is drawing to a close, and we hope all Unions will note the fact that they can materially enlarge our membership and increase our revenue by seeing that all member's subscriptions are collected. We only count in our annual return of membership those whose subscriptions are paid, and every year our Treasurer's report shows about a thousand members less than we really have, because the subscriptions are not collected. It is a good idea to have a Pay-up Social, and get all members possible to attend and pay their fees. Those who do not attend should be waited upon by the Treasurer or her assistant, and every effort made to see that all members' fees are collected, and that every member is included in our annual count. Try it and you'll be astonished how our membership will increase.

Correspondence.*OUR WHITE BADGE.

(To the Editor.)

Dear Sisters,—In these days of economy we can still afford to wear our badge on each out-of-door garment, if we care to make it of the white Japanese tape which is used by the shop-keepers for tying up their parcels. These badges are made in a moment, often last longer than those of silk ribbon, and should one become accidentally crushed, the cost of a new badge is infinitesimal. I enclose one for your inspection, Madam Editor.—Yours cordially,
SISTER MOODY BELL.

(The enclosed badge is quite neat and tasteful, and looks like a White Ribbon bow.—Editor "White Ribbon.")

Lift up your eyes! The stars are in the sky;
The mountains storm the grey horizons yonder;
The rainbow bends above you like a prayer
That overarches all the toils of men
And all their griefs. A thousand lovely things
Await your gaze. Time-born! lift up your eyes!

Yonder is laurelled Triumph; yonder tears
Melt to the thinnest mist, and all the earth
Is glad again with sunshine and with dew.
God keeps his tryst with men. Lift up your eyes!
War's winter passes; holy Peace returns.

AMONG OUR WORKERS.

The press work of Mrs S. R. Artman, of Indianapolis, wife of Judge Artman, well known to White Ribboners for his advocacy of Prohibition, is doing much to promote the lines of W.C.T.U. activity. For four years every Saturday, Mrs Artman has exploited W.C.T.U. doings and plans in the "Indianapolis Star," which daily enters 125,000 homes. The Jubilee drive comes in for its share of publicity. Mrs Artman holds the Pen-nant for the best press work accomplished in Indiana.
