WHAT DOST THOU KNOW, O CRAFTY CHE?

One Gnr Turral of F Troop knows same thing! Oft in the stilly hight when his tent mates are out visiting and his suspicious mind tells him he can work unobserved, he has been detected packing and repacking his kit. Apparently the idea is to be well prepared for a sudden departure for NI and not to be caught napping with insufficient room for the maximum quantity of contrabani. The watch-word now is 'Watch Alby - he know's something!'
