

N Z E F I P

Highlights

Incorporating "Cactus Courier" and "Weakly Muse."

Sat. 8th. Apr. 1944

"PIN-UP" CRAZE
30th. Battalion.

Copy No. 10

Our artists still persevere with their none too artistic attempts to create female likenesses. Though these efforts add a little variety to life here, we feel that some worthwhile "pin-ups" would adorn the tent walls more suitably. Possibly in the circulation of this magazine, a copy will fall into the hands of a W.A.A.G. or W.A.A.F. who would send us "pin-ups" to pass on to our "lonely hearts." In exchange the most valuable souvenir we can offer is an autographed photo of our Colonel "William Powell" Mc Crea, a "pin-up" man you'll be proud to possess

- The Editor.

:: ::

- Yearbury.

"YOUR MOTHER TOLD YOU NOT TO TALK TO STRANGE WOMEN!" - "Who said anything about talking?"

TENT-alisers.

One of the boys talks of someone who is "troppo" to the extent of seeing pink elephants and WHITE WOMEN ! Yes, another case for Doc.

.....

This magazine aims to please: We've contacted the airport at Charlie Todd and the staff have agreed to make sleep more possible for you and have silencers put on planes. (request)