

BUNTY IN TROUBLE.

Bunty has spoiled his fine military record. If not particularly noted for brightness and originality, he at least has been a model of dignity and decorum from which the P.T. Staff could learn a great deal. The trouble was that Bunty fell in love. So much so that he just couldn't keep away from the lady. This was all right until he started going A.W.I.

Rivals!

The young lady had fourteen other suitors but you will be pleased to hear that it was our Bunty who succeeded in winning her love. However, the match was considered unsuitable (she was only a Pekinese) so Bunty was warned off. Then trouble started. He disobeyed a lawful command and went A.W.I. (A.A.15A). He was put under close arrest but broke out of confinement twice. Dick Javin and George Darrall were made acting-provosts. Every time he broke out of the cooler they had to rad the home of Bunty's girlfriend.

Bunty is now a sadder man, we hope, wiser dog. Just shows you what love can do to a man.

D BLOCK DOINGS.

We would like to read more about "Block. Can't anybody write in that Block?

For endurance beat this: Phil Hardiman & Stan Taylor have been having a crib contest for at least the last two months. What are the stakes worth now, Phil?

"Weapon Training"

Noticed recently, Sgt. "Buster" Eversleigh marching around the block with an 1860 Vintage "Elephant Gun" at the slope.

"Rationed"

C.M. supplied bread & jam to men on the range recently. None for Sgts or Officers! A bit of class distinction eh Mac?

WE WANT NEWS!

See that the "doings" of your section are reported. Let one of the following know what is going on.

A. Block: Sgt. Jackson-Thomas HQ Coy. Orderly Room.

B. Block: Cpl. Elliott. Camp Library.

C. Block: S/Sgt. Mitchell, AEWS Centre.

D. Block: Sgt. H. King, NZA Pool.

3 MT: Sgt. Stewart.

Med. & Dental: S/Sgt. Watson or AEWS Centre.